CAIN MEMORIAL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday services were well attended. Rev. Anderson preached an excellent sermon at the evening services. There were also a goodly number of visitors at each service. We are glad to have them any time. One addition was made to the Church Sunday morning. The pastor and family wishes to thank the members and friends for the many presents received during Christmas. The watch meeting service was very nicely attended considering all things. The spirit ran high. Dr. S. B. Anderson was with us and said many helpful things. We made the New Year call and three came and united with the Church. We thank the Heavenly Father that little Zion is still growing. Quarterly meeting will be Sunday, January 5. Dr. J. F. Sage will preach at 3 p. m. Miss Chandley, our organist, is much improved and the choir will soon be at their place. Members, visitors and friends are all welcome. Come!

EBENEZER CHURCH.

In spite of the closed doors of the church for a number of weeks on account of the "flu," and in spite of the severe cold weather and poor car service, Ebenezer has just closed one of the best quarters in its history. The Rev. A. A. Gilbert, P. E., preached two strong powerful sermons both morning and evening. Rev. J. C. Bell, the scholar and orator, the successful pastor of St. John, delivered an impressive sermon in the afternoon. There were eight additions to the church. The reports from the different boards and auxiliaries of the church were: Trustees, $100.60; Stewards, $78.05; Stewardesses, $34.65; Junior Stewardesses, $7; Deaconesses, $188.45; Sunday School, $23.65; Christian Endeavor, $12.50; Choir, $50.97; Missionaries, $30.28; Art Circle, $30.37; Improvement Board, $18.92; Who-so-Ever-Will Club, $23.18; Willing Workers, $18.77; Ushers, $15; United We Stand Club, $9. Total for less than two months, $2,337.21. Open doors at the parsonage on New Year's day was largely attended by members and some of our most prominent citizens. A large New Year's offering was taken. Mrs. Ona B. Wilson and her Busy Bee Girls gave a splendid concert at the Christmas tree on New Year's eve. The drill and the recitation by Mildred Robinson, reading by Gladys Smith and the solo by Irene Burns were especially commendable and well rendered. Every number was good. The tree was laden with gifts for the grown as well as the children. The Improvement Board, United We Stand Club and the Willing Workers vied with each other in giving useful and elaborate gifts to the pastor and wife. The president of the Art Club, Mrs. Bessie Mason, and the president of the Improvement Board, Mrs. Ida Vaughn, gave personal elaborate gifts. Many gifts were also given by individual members and friends and the pastor and wife were appreciative and grateful to all. Mrs. Osborne was also the recipient of some elaborate gifts from Omaha, Neb. Miss Mollie Wilson and her Junior Endeavorers delighted an appreciative audience at the church on Monday evening in the rendition of the play, "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet." It was full of humor and wit from start. Master Vernon Barton, who portrayed the head man of the church, and things must be done because he said so, was indeed the star in the play. He was closely seconded by Henry Washington who had invited a city girl to take charge of the choir; this part was played to perfection by Hortense Dimery. Mamie Maxey, the hard-to-hear member of the church, and Elizabeth Dimery, who stuttered, brought down the house. All were good. A Beautiful Character, Devoted Wife, Loving Sister, Faithful Member and Friend Laid to Rest.

Mrs. Minnie L. Jackson, wife of Brother Tyler Jackson, was buried from Ebenezer on last Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. T. Osborne officiating, assisted by Rev. A. A. Gilbert with Watkins Bros. undertakers, in charge. She looked as if only sleeping in the beautiful gray couch casket and every tribute was paid to her sacred memory. Her class, in fitting condolence, spoke of her faithful service, her love for her church and ever willingness to do her part. The Art Club spoke of her sunshine disposition, her ever sweet smiling countenance and her eager desire always for peace and harmony. The last work she was permitted to do was just after Conference. She came with her lunch and spent the day working with the Art Club, cleaning and beautifying the church. Her Easter Star Chapter in charge conducted a beautiful solemn service. They too spoke of her lovely disposition and her faithfulness to the chapter, all with whom she had mingled cherished her sacred memory with the beautiful thought: "None knew her but to love her." She is missed, yet she is not dead, because there is no death to those who live a beautiful, useful life; they simply fall asleep in Jesus. And her many friends, together with the bereaved husband, sisters and brothers whom the pastor, members, friends of Ebenezer extend the deepest sympathy feel that—

Dear is the spot where Minnie is laid. And fond are the memories that shall never fade; Bright are the hopes that again we shall meet, kneeling together at Jesus' feet.

MT. TABOR A. M. E. CHURCH.

The pastor, Rev. W. M. Williams, preached a splendid sermon both morning and evening. There were many evidences of the Holy Ghost. Two persons connected themselves with the church. The first Quarterly meeting of the New Year will be held at our church, 34th and Oakley, next Sunday, January 5th. The Rev. Howard Samilton will preach. Our friends from various churches are invited to be present.

ST. STEPHEN'S BAPTIST CHURCH.

The pastor preached Sunday morning to a very good audience in spite of the bad weather. The Sunday school was well attended at 2:30. Sunday evening a great crowd was present and the pastor delivered a powerful sermon and there were six additions to the church. A glorious watch meeting was held New Year's eve and at 11 o'clock the pastor preached from Matthew 28: 20, theme, "The Goodness of God." Many sinners were called to the mourner's bench and five minutes of twelve everybody went upon their knees to thank God for permitting them to see the old year out and the new year in. Three joined the church.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH.

This church, located at 19th and Waldron, is making much progress under the leadership of her new pastor, S. W. Toles, N. D. More than forty members have been added during the past two months. Dr. Toles is a splendid preacher and if you want to be electrified with a gospel sermon, come and hear him. Rev. Toles is here from Dallas, Texas, where he spent seven years, but he is a native of Ohio. Come and hear him. Take a Jackson or Indiana avenue car and get off on Waldron, walk one block south.

The famous Masonic choir, under the leadership of Mesdames Fox and Morrison, will render a literary and musical program for us January 9. The admission is 15 cents. The public is invited.

Dr. N. T. Lane, pastor of the St. Paul Baptist church, will open a ten days' meeting for us beginning January 15. Please come. This means YOU!

INTER-DENOMINATIONAL MINISTERS' ALLIANCE.

The Inter-Denominational Ministerial Alliance will meet in regular services at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday, 10:30 a. m., January 7th. The membership and all ministers of Greater Kansas City, are kindly urged to be present and on time. All committees are requested to report the first meeting of the New Year. We should have a good attendance and helpful meeting.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The attendance and services for the last two weeks were what we generally style "fair." This more than met expectation with the poor street car service. The services on Christmas day at 11 a. m. were well attended and truly helpful. The children's program on Sunday morning was full of joy and happiness for the little ones and a splendid object lesson for the older ones. There were no mid-week meetings of the departments during Christmas week. Elder R. L. Love of Guthrie, Okla., called upon us unannounced and spent the Christmas with us. He preached three sermons that will not soon be forgotten. Mr. W. J. Sharp and son of Topeka, Kans., brother-in-law of the pastor, made a short visit and worshipped with us. Mrs. A. J. Lewis and daughter, Lindall, spent the Christmas with friends in St. Louis. Mrs. A. J. Therence, our music instructor, spent the Christmas with relatives in Shreveport, La. The Christmas dinner given the Orphan Children by Mr. Ewing (24th and Highland) and prepared by the Ladies Aid Society was a good one and much enjoyed by the children. We all should feel indebted to Mr. Ewing, Mesdames White, Buford, Casaway and McDonald for their kindness to the children. The pastor will speak at both services next Sunday. The annual business meeting of the church Wednesday night, January 8th, at which reports from all departments of the church will be made and officers elected for 1919. The public is welcome to all services.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The Church of Tomorrow" was the subject of Dr. Bacote's beautiful sermon which was enjoyed by the congregation. In the evening the pastor chose for his subject, "And the Disciples were First Called Christians at Antioch." This sermon was very interesting. During the day there were five additions to the church. The services on Tuesday evening were full of inspiration to those who were fortunate enough to attend and to kneel in prayer as the old year passed out and the new year came in. The Mission Circle held a very interesting session at the home of Mrs. Yancy, 1007 Vine street. The annual church meeting was held in the lecture room last Friday evening. In this meeting all of the reports of the church officers read and adopted also the church officers for the incoming year were elected. The church will start a revival in the near future to which all members and friends of this congregation are asked to come.

GALLILEE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services here were extraordinary good Sunday. Sunday school was good and well attended. At 11 a. m. our pastor, Dr. A. Moore, preached a noble and powerful sermon, "Settling Accounts and Posting Books." The B. Y. P. U. was opened by President Miss Cora Holman. It was well attended and a great lesson taught. The pastor preached another great sermon in the evening to which there were two additions.

The watch meeting Tuesday night was largely attended.

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services were well attended and many new faces were seen in the audience last Sunday. Sunday school well attended. The pastor, Rev. N. T. Lane, preached both morning and evening and the sermons were very inspiring. Every seat was taken in the church. Money raised, $33, and on last Sunday, a week ago, we raised $100. Our church is alive and the public is invited to come and hear our noble pastor. Take a Sun home with you.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday morning services were conducted by our pastor. Sunday evening we were entertained by Rev. R. N. Burnside, our pastor being ill. And the Holy Ghost did visit old Friendship. On December 26 there were four prizes to have been given away in the ham contest. The number that drew the ham is still out. Any person holding No. 218 may show their stub to Trustee Ransom and get two 10-pound hams. There were three additions to the church, Sunday. Collection for the sick, $4.57. Collection, $109. Mrs. Joe Beaudix and daughter, Violet, Shackleford, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has returned to the city to make it their home again. They are now stopping with the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Kealy and Mrs. Bertha Chilton, 3717 Barker avenue, Kansas side. On New Year's eve we held watch meeting. Among us was Rev. H. T. Borders of Oklahoma City, Okla., president of the Baptist Foreign Mission convention, who preached to us at the last hour of the old year; a great preacher he is.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

The last Sunday of the Old Year was Quarterly Meeting day at Allen Chapel. Rev. A. A. Gilbert, P. E., occupied the pulpit at the morning and evening services. His sermons were filled with inspiration and encouragement. Dr. J. A. Chandley delivered a fine sacramental sermon at the afternoon service. Many from other congregations worshipped with us in spirit and in truth. During the day there were three additions. Because of the car strike, general class and love feast were held with the regular class meeting Tuesday night December 31 instead of Monday night following Quarterly Meeting. Watch meeting was held immediately following love feast and class. The worshippers watched the Old Year out and the New Year in, in thanksgiving and in prayer instead of in revelry and drinking. The Douglas Hospital Chapel entertained the pastor and family with a party at the parsonage Monday evening, December 30. Quite an enjoyable time was had by all present. The Strangers' Club served a delightful banquet in honor of the President, Senators, Governors and workers of the Mock Congress in the lecture room, December 28. With best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year, the Minister and members of Allen Chapel invite you to start the year right by attending their Church services and uniting with them in worship and in work if not connected with other congregations.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

All services at Bethel were largely attended last Sunday. The Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. was well attended. We were pleased to have Mrs. Roberts, our District President, to look in upon us and hope she will call again. At 11:00 o'clock Dr. Dawson selected for his text: "The Glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former saith the Lord of hosts: And in this place, will I give peace-saith the Lord of Hosts." 6:30 P. M. The Endeavor was well attended and the pastor's subject was "Dress Up." At the close of the sermon he extended the invitation to those who wish to become followers of Jesus. One woman accepted the invitation and two men. All who were present felt as the disciples did on the mount that it was good to be there. Tuesday night was Watch Meeting night. Rev. Mr. Johnson preached the sermon for that occasion from the Old Fashioned praise meeting began. My, My, you should have been there. Dr. Dawson invited sinners to Jesus, three came for prayers and two accepted Christ. A great rally will be held the 4th Sunday in February and all members and friends are asked to do their bit.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended. There were two additions. Watch meeting was enjoyed by all and $28.70 was given as a New Year offering. The Christmas dinner was a grand success. Miss Jennie Lee and her noble committee deserves much credit for their splendid work. Mrs. Robert Bell of 2202 Forest Avenue has re-

A CALL TO TRUE MEN AND WOMEN.

The Kansas Defense Society is raising funds to secure, if possible, the freedom of the Negro soldiers who are confined in prison for having participated in the so-called Houston riot. The Sun has taken up their cause in this city and if you believe they should have a rehearing, that they should be given a WHITE MAN'S CHANCE before the bar of public opinion and equity, then be courageous enough to subscribe to the extent of your ability to this very worthy cause. The Sun has started the contribution with ten dollars. Who will be the next loyal man or woman of the Race to make a contribution? Mail in your contribution or come to our office or call us over our phone, Bell East 999, and we will come to you. All contributions will be published weekly in this paper.

Are you a man? Have you a heart? Then get busy.
